Aaron

this is John Troy from Troy Law

it seems you enjoy your Deenora case a lot

Clients come and go

we, attorneys, have to survive

I am shaking the Apple tree so you could pick the fallen apple on the floor

I am the rainmaker for you you make more money on this case than the last one

You should say thank you and have a good weekend

Maybe you do not have to say thank you, but do not hit me with a bat

haha
